Contemporaries.

BREATHITT COUNTY.

Special Correspondence.]

JACKSON, Dec. 12.—Hagins Parrott wedding last week. J. Wise Hagins, the energetic and factious clerk of the Breathitt county court, treated his many friends to quite an agreeable surprise by stealing quietly away from town, not even revealing his intentions to his trusty and confidential quire, whom he left domiciled in his office during his absence, and repaired to Kingston, Ky., to secure a pet from a bevy of birds found in the verdant fields of the bluegrass. On Tuesday, December 10th, success crowned his efforts. He succeeded in capturing a Parrott, a bird that can talk (but not named Polly), which he with feelings of the greatest exultation and joy hastened to bring as a trophy to his mountain home, to cheer him on his way as he gropes through the labyrinths of the arduous toils, exacting duties and unceasing cares of life. We might congratulate him upon his success, wish him all the pleasures that his cup of joy is capable of holding, and earnestly hope to see the fulfillment of his most sanguine expectations, but what he is actually enjoying so far surpasses all that we might wish, hope or even dream, and for fear of being called sycophantic, we will say nothing about it, but silently and patiently look for the consummation of all that he hopes to realize, in the meantime resting assured that he will never hear a discordant croak from his pet, experience any more trouble with his breeches, and that henceforth life to him will be what it seems.

Messrs. H. H. Honore and Oliver Jackson, of Chicago, and B. B. Groom, of Texas, chaperoned by Ben Crawford, of Louisville, have been in the county examining our coal and timber lands. They could not have fallen into better hands than Mr. Crawford, as he has been here and knows just what he has got on hand when he comes.

Marriage licenses were issued last week for William Little and Mary Turner, Thos.
Niece and Maria Fugate, Joseph C. Mullins and Mary E. Hays, Isaac Gabbard and Belle Baker. We obtained the clerk's fees for all these, yet we are not happy and want to see the good work go on.

Jonathan Childers, of Wolfe county, was visiting the family of Marion Childers and another one last week.

Rev. E. P. Mickel, of Grayson, has located in our town, and will preach in the Presbyterian churches of this and Wolfe counties during the year.

MORGAN COUNTY.

Special Correspondence.]

GRASSY CREEK, Dec. 12.—Robert Greer, of this place, has purchased a portion of the Wm. Prater farm, on this creek, of Hiram Proffitt for $400.

Jesse Oldfield, who has been logging for some time, cut a tree the other day which fell on his team, killing one steer and crippling two others.

Wm. Havens and J. S. Wheeler have bought 250 turkeys, which they will ship to Cincinnati in a few days.

Your correspondent had the pleasure of spending a night with Uncle John Rose, of Wolfe county, and would say that we never met a more clever gentleman. While in that neighborhood we met a brother correspondent, who is also a whole souled fellow and a splendid writer.

Frank Williams has recently moved from this creek to Caney.

William Havens, Esqr., will hold court at this place next Saturday.

Wm. Park, of Montgomery county, has been in this county for some days visiting relatives and friends.

Rev. H. H. Little preached at the Caskey school house on last Saturday and Sunday to a respectable audience.

Rev. W. B. Ragan preached at this place last Sunday at 11 o'clock.

J. M. Murphy closed his school on Blackwater last Saturday with an examination and entertainment that was creditable to himself and his pupils.

James Samples, of Campton, is visiting in this neighborhood.

Charles Cecil went to Covington a few days ago to serve as a grand juror in the U.
S. Court.

Died—On the 11th inst., an infant child of John Brewer.

Boon Byrd had the misfortune to cut his leg very badly last week with an axe.

Judge McKinzie is having the county road changed through J. G. Oldfield's farm, which is a grand change and will be a great advantage to the public.

Wm. B. Good purchased a nice lot timber of Duck and Jo Stamper, for which he paid $500 on the bank. J. S. Wheeler, also, bought a lot of timber, enough for seven rafts to be delivered at this place.

ON THE WING.

EARL, Dec. 12.—James Webb, of the Missionary Baptist Church, preached at this place Tuesday night.

Mr. Testerman and daughter passed here Wednesday. Mr. Testerman had been to Rothwell to meet his daughter, who is out on a visit from Virginia.

Thomas Bush, coal miner of this neighborhood, was arrested last week upon a charge of obtaining goods under false pretense. Being brought before Esqr. Hill, he waived examination and is held over in a bond of $100 for further trial.

Logan Lindon and others, from a distance, were here last week making arrangements to attend school here this winter. BLURT.

James McGuire and family, of Tom's Branch, are visiting at this place.

D. G. Combs preached here last Sunday.
The church has employed him for another year.

Willie Kash who has been very low with fever, is improving slowly.

If you expect to make Xmas or wedding presents, and desire anything in the jewelry or silverware line, we think we can make it interesting to buy now. We have plain substantial goods, fancy articles and novelties, and will sell for a very small profit, as we can duplicate them before Xmas. Gold watches and diamonds at prices no one can duplicate. Otis W. Snider, the manufacturing jeweler, Lexington, Ky. Write for prices.

MAGOFFIN COUNTY.

Special Correspondence.]

JOHNSON'S FORK, Dec. 8.—The school of L. C. Davis was out Saturday, 3d inst.
A large crowd of visitors witnessed the closing exercises, which were both interesting and entertaining. The school has been a success in every particular. Mr. Davis will begin a two months' term of a subscription school at the same place in a few days.

The health of our vicinity is good at this writing. L. C. Davis was taken very sick last Wednesday night with cholera morbus, but is able to be out again.

Misses Mary and Martha May, of Mason Fork of Licking, were visiting their uncle, John P. Simer, Saturday and Sunday.

J. L. P. Shiner and John Patrick are putting in a boom at the mouth of this creek to stop their timber.

Prof. Ward, of Virginia, was in this community a few days ago looking for a suitable location for a school.

We now have a post office at this place after so long a time, with John P. Simer as postmaster.

Preaching at Sugar Grove Saturday and Sunday with two additions to the church.

Isaac Williams sold to John Patrick, the other day, a fine young horse for $80.

R. T. Davis began his school on Cow creek Monday, the 5th inst.

F. Elam is at work painting Buell P.
Simer's new house.

C. W. L. Pugh has his water mill about ready for business.

John Williams and wife have the mumps pretty badly.

Any and everything that can be executed with new type, first class presses and fine paper, in the hands of skilled mechanics, may be had at this office at less than city prices. It will pay any man in Eastern Kentucky to get his printing at THE HER-ALD office. Send for estimates, and state exactly what you want.

TAZEWELL COUNTY, VA.

Special Correspondence.]

CEDAR BLUFF, Dec. 8.—R. A. and J.
G. Lipford, of this place, left for Mouth of Pond, Pike county, Ky., last Tuesday on a business trip.

Married—At the residence of the bride's father, George Fleming to Miss Maggie Farner. It was a very still affair, no one being aware of it until next day. May peace and happiness attend their pathway through life.

It is strange indeed how the girls will fall in love with the young railroaders, but it is not to be wondered at, for they are so handsome, pleasing and obliging they can not help it.

The Sunday school superintendent has appointed T. H. John as "boss" singer at our Xmas tree. Mrs. Baldwin will furnish the instrumental music. The collecting committee have nearly $50. A "killing" time is expected by all.

Charlie Sanford has bought the Williams store and steam saw mill on Sward's creek, Russell county, and will move down there shortly.

Mr. Pobst and lady, of Jeffersonville, are now residents of Indian, living with their son-in-law, Mr. Hoover, the factory man at Sulphur Springs.

Success to THE HERALD and our Campton friends.

[Mr. Smalley don't live there now.]—Ed.

THE HERALD and the Weekly Cincinnati Enquirer, one year for only $2.00. It strikes us that this is the best combination yet made, and if it hits you the same way, send us $2.00 in cash and you will get both papers for twelve months.

OBITUARY.

Died, Nov. 13, 1887, of consumption, Mrs. HANNAH C. GRAHAM, wife of N. B.
Graham, of Wolfe county, Ky., aged 29 years, 10 months and 13 days. She was the daughter of Moses and Rebecca Lacy, of Morgan county; was married July 16, 1887; became a member of the Methodist Church at an early age, lived an exemplary and devoted christian to her death, and died in full triumph of a blessed immortality beyond this world. With imploring solicitation to her benevolent husband and two little children to so live in this world that they, when called from time, would be able to meet her in the mansions of bliss, where partings will be no more, she endured her afflictions, though long and severe, with christian fortitude and resigned her self into the care of Him who said, "I will never forsake thee." While under the parental roof she was always obedient and dutiful to her parents, and a favorite in the family circle, she was an affectionate and loving wife and a tender and indulgent mother. Her husband has lost a tender wife, her children a kind mother, her parents and relatives a tender tie, and society a bright member.
Our loss is her eternal gain. M. L.
